Dietaries and preferences will result in duplicates of meals.

If prearranged, meals can be left at your delivery address in a thick, insulated cooler bag with ice bricks. Shopping bags are not acceptable. If these requirements are not met, meals will be returned to the kitchen and it will be up to you to collect or arrange a re-delivery.

Customers are responsible for meals once they have left the delivery van. Cooler bags and ice bricks can be purchased from Uniting Communities and delivered with your next order.
